Policy on Repurposing a HMS Educational Activity

Effective Date: September 22, 2014

HMS GCE prohibits a HMS faculty member or course director from repackaging and/or repurposing an educational activity certified by HMS for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ for delivery in another format. As such, it is not appropriate to contact or have outside vendors solicit other accredited CME providers to simultaneously certify or re-certify an educational activity certified by HMS for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ even if the newly certified activity will be delivered to audiences through a different means, including a recording, a live stream or through the internet. As an example, faculty may not record a live activity certified by HMS for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ and offer the recorded version on another accredited provider's website for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™.
